

Recent Scholarship Recipients

The profiles below describe some of the many students who have received recent Saratoga Springs Rotary Club scholarships, which are funded by the Saratoga Springs Rotary Education Foundation.

Kristina Nolte

Saratoga Springs High School, Class of 2006
Harvard University, Class of 2010
Scholarship Award: $12,000 over 4 years (Presidential Scholarship)

While at Harvard, Kristina served the community through Reading is Fundamental and supported the Jimmy Fund through her participation in the figure skating club. After graduating with a degree in economics, Kristina now works in New York City as a financial analyst.

Travis McGrath

Saratoga Springs High School, Class of 2007
Bard College, Class of 2011
Scholarship Award: $14,000 over 4 years (Presidential Scholarship)

During his final year at Bard, Travis was among those seniors lauded for making significant contributions to the overall welfare of the college. His involvement was wide-ranging, including running a free textbook co-op and serving in student government. A mathematics major with a strong interest in Latin America, Travis traveled to Nicaragua to build houses with a team of students. He is now employed at a business intelligence software firm in the Hudson Valley.

Cara Kowalski

Saratoga Springs High School, Class of 2007
State University of New York at Geneseo, Class of 2011
Scholarship Award: $1,500

While completing a double major in geography and sociology at SUNY Geneseo, Cara continued to serve others as an active volunteer. The summer after her junior year, she lived in South Dakota, where she worked as a youth mentor on the Cheyenne River Sioux Reservation. For the first year after graduation, Cara is running a food pantry in Spokane, Washington, as part of an AmeriCorps program (JVC Northwest).
